Policy Statement:

All persons meeting the definition and qualifications listed in Lakemary’s program descriptions are given careful consideration for admission to service.

Policy:

Admission to Lakemary Center (LMC) is determined by the Interdisciplinary Admissions and Review Committee. Acceptance into service and support is based on the person’s ability to meet the admission criteria and that their support needs are within the scope of Lakemary’s mission and capabilities. Each program area has specific criteria for admission.
