Policy Statement:

Lakemary Center (LMC) believes it is important to provide an orientation when people first enter into support with Lakemary. This orientation should be presented in terms they and their family/guardian or advocate can understand.

Policy:

LMC will provide orientation to all persons entering support with the organization, including available support, person-centered support planning, individualized goals, an explanation of rights and responsibilities, Final Rule, if applicable, financial arrangements and organizational policies in terms understood by the person and their family/guardian/or advocate.
